

2022 Webinar Series

NAVIGATING THE NEW NORMAL:

Tools For Managing Program Delivery & Working With Young Parents

Authentically Engaging Teen Parents in Service Delivery

Tuesday May 3rd, 10:00 - 11:30 am MT

- Dr. Ruth M. Lopez — University of Houston
- Dr. Rhoda Freelon — University of Houston

Supporting Early Childhood Mental Health Through Dyadic Parent-Child Work

Thursday, May 12th, 10:00 - 11:30 am MT

- Marisa Gullicksrud, LCSW — Program Director, Child First

Addressing Secondary Trauma and Promoting Staff Resiliency

Friday, May 20, 11:00 - 12:30 pm MT

- Dr. Kayla Knopp, PhD — Clinical Research Psychologist, San Diego

Tough As A Teen Parent: A Conversation About Parenting and Substance Use

Featuring the Tough As A Mother Campaign

Wednesday, May 25, 11:00 - 12:30 pm MT

- Kallen Thornton, MSSW, LCSW — Colorado Office of Behavioral Health, CDHS
- Kacy Behrend, LPC, LAC, — Colorado Office of Behavioral Health, CDHS

register now via

teenparentcollaborative.org

The Colorado Teen Parent Collaborative's 2022 Webinar Series is a professional development opportunity for people who work with and serve teen parents across Colorado. It provides a forum for practitioners, researchers, policymakers, advocates, and stakeholders working with pregnant and parenting teens to share expertise, network, and gain professional knowledge to improve practice and service delivery.